“The End of

The building of a high school is a slow, tedious process. It must be tempered with time and patience; many hands must share in its creation.

Eager minds fashion a physical structure, itself a foundation of which all can be proud, but this alone is insufficient; a successful high school must also be founded on other intangible platforms.

Chief architects of this expansive building project are the vitally important teachers. As a basis for all beginning construction, they develop foundations of leadership, encouragement, and eternal influence. They guide the students on the path of intellectual inquiry. They develop high standards and always strive for the better things in education.

From these primary foundations spring the skeleton-like structure formed of those students who compose the beginning. Their accomplishments are the first beams, supports, and arches around which all other development is made.

the Beginning '1

Lacking any experience or tradition, they produce a design which is unique and dedicated to the future.

... Because we were not a four-year high school with experience and tradition behind us, whatever we accomplished was ours. We had nothing to look back on and everything to attain in the future. Scenes of accomplishments and failures became memories; we learned and profited every time something new was initiated. Traditions, ideals, goals, and extra-curricular activities had to be established, and establish we did. Piece by piece, a section of a time.

Provided with this foundation and design to guide them, the Highland High School students of tomorrow now find not only that their heritage is the beginning, but that their goal is the future. . . . Each will leave in the building his brick of impression. Great or small, it will be a living symbol for all to see.

The beginning is over; the future is yet to come!

The Beginning . . .

The April day was cold and dreary but is remembered as a bright occasion. Highland's wish for a high school was finally being fulfilled. Lon P. Monbeck, Superintendent of Schools, broke the first shovel-full of sod and gave an inspiring message. Color was added to the ceremony by the school band and the Highland American Legion marching unit.

. . . The Present . . .

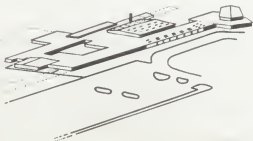

Here it stands, proud and streamlined, our beautiful school which was and is destined to mold young minds, producing tomorrow's leaders. Our teachers, who are the backbone of our education, have given us high standards; our students act as strong restraining columns upholding these standards.

. . . The Future . . .

Embodied in H. H. S. are all the traditions, ideals and ambitions mingled with our many hopes for the future. The modern structure in which we have attained the beginnings in education will soon be only a skeleton of the building which is to become our school of tomorrow.

In a few years, what is now only an architect's sketch will materialize. The expectations of students, parents, and faculty alike will no longer be a dream.

Traditions Were Established...

Tense with excitement, eager with anticipation, the crowd breathlessly awaited the debut of Highland High's first basketball squad and first athletic team. Thus the Highland tradition was born in our first of many victories.

Typifying H.H.S. spirit and enthusiasm were our first cheerleaders. These "good-will" ambassadors were out in front at all basketball games that first and all-important season.

"For the sons and daughters that wear the blue and gold..." And so it was that these were the first Trojan sons to sport the fighting blue. Though our team was solely Sophomores and Juniors, their bulldog tenacity saw them through; and the season terminated with a 5-3 record.

Another day, another tradition as we prepared for our first homecoming. Plans for this gala occasion included the crowning of a queen, a motorcade to the game with River Forest, and a dance.

However, the excitement of the game was soon transferred to the half-time activities as the crowd awaited the announcement and crowning of our first Homecoming Queen, Karan Sell.

Following the victory, the students returned to the high school for a soc-hop at which Karan and her court reigned.

Spring, laughter, and the end of school set a perfect scene for the Fiesta that will long be remembered by all of Highland High's students. Sponsored by the Spanish Club, the all school event saw months of preparation before its occurrence. All who went were sure to have participated in one of the lotteries, although all couldn't win. Gay Spanish ornomentations decorated the halls as a fortune teller, marriage booth, and teacher dunk added to the gaiety. All this and more for only a few pesos.

Dreams Became

Talent and preparation was the recipe for a successful and most enjoyable Minstrelrama. The merry endmen, the melodramatic caricatures, the peanut vendors, the graceful dancers were all features of the never-to-be-forgotten extravaganza.

The Minstrelrama was one of Highland High School's firsts, and a good part of its success can be owed to the director, producer, and announcer, Mr. Eugene Gambrill.

Emanon?? "No name" spelled backwards, and that's exactly what it was—a paper without a name. It was Highland High's first paper which set a fine tradition for the present day Trojan.

Carolynn Swatts, the paper's first editor-in-chief, surveys the proud product as it first appeared.

Realities . . .

Counseling is a small, but important beginning to an unlimited future which awaits Highland's students as they stand at the threshold of adulthood.

Our counselors provide a good ear for troubled students as they advise and guide them to decisions which may affect the course of a lifetime. Advising Seniors consumes an ample portion of their time, and this is perhaps where one can see the culmination of goals set for and by these Seniors in past years.

And Our Goals Were Attained.

However, the bright dreams of a child are not easily procured, and it is only through guidance that an inexperienced youth can face reality and live up to his possibilities. The gateway to knowledge is a long, trying path, and graduation is but one pace to this ultimate destination.

ADMINISTRATION

School Board Sets Policies...

Row 1: Mr. Lon P. Manbeck, Superintendent of School; Dr. John Sanik, Jr., President; Mr. Gordon T. Heim, Treasurer; Mr. John H. Strange, Secretary.

Organizing and operating school programs are essentially the jobs of a typical school board. On its shoulders rest the great responsibilities of securing capable teachers and determining a budget to provide for school equipment and facilities.

Three citizens who are appointed by the town board trustees share the duties of school board members in Highland. The present members, who have served on the board respectively for two, eight, and one year, are as follows: Dr. John Sanik, Jr., President; Mr. John H. Strange, Secretary; Mr. Gordon T. Heim, Treasurer. These men work through the state educational laws to provide the best possible schooling for Highland students.

The school board's special concern has been to finance the building of additional classrooms for Highland's rapidly expanding student population. Foresight as to Highland's future educational needs has been a strong characteristic of this and past boards. This was made further evident when bids were opened on January 26, 1960, for a 13-room addition to the high school; even earlier, plans for a new junior high school were announced.

One fulfillment of their work is the realization of a first graduating class at Highland High School. It is to these students and those to follow that Dr. Sanik directs the thoughts of the school board: "With its first graduating class, neighbors, employers, and many colleges and universities will be evaluating the first product of Highland High School. The School Board is confident that whatever your immediate endeavors are, the first impressions you create will be not only favorable but everlasting."

Superintendent of Schools

Part of Highland High School's beginnings can be found in the year 1936 when Mr. Lon P. Monbeck, first came to Highland as Principal of Main Elementary School. Mr. Monbeck received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Manchester College in 1934. Two years later he left Columbia University with a Master of Arts in education. The Universities of Michigan, Chicago, and Indiana offered Mr. Monbeck further education. As a Highland school administrator, he achieved his present office in 1950.

Being a superintendent of schools, Mr. Monbeck has few moments of leisure; but during vacation time his favorite activity is fishing in northern Minnesota. He also devotes much time to civic organizations; he is a member of the Highland Lions Club, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Garfield Masonic Lodge of Hammond. In connection with his position as a school administrator he also is affiliated with the National Education Association and the American Association of School Administrators.

Administrators Set High Standards . . .

The Superintendents' ever-busy secretaries, Mrs. Lois Foltz and Mrs. Barbara Vander Dussen, go over their work for the day.

Principal

An intelligent and capable administrator, Principal Allen J. Warren, has guided Highland High School through three tedious years of development. His ever-present aid and cooperation will never be forgotten by the classes of today.

A well-educated man, Mr. Warren graduated from Ball State Teachers College with a Bachelor of Science degree, received his Master of Arts in 1951, and he has done additional graduate work at Purdue, Indiana University, Ball State, and Butler. He is a member of both Kapa Delta Pi and Phi Delta Theta, national education honoraries.

Interested in sports, Mr. Warren takes pleasure in attending all athletic contests. He is an avid reader and a member of both the Kiwanis, and the Masons.

Advise the Faculty

Assisting Mr. Warren in his duties as Principal are his office secretaries, Mrs. Grace Riechers and Mrs. Laurene Hasselbring.

Assistant Principal

A new addition to the school this year, Mr. Robert Day, came to H.H.S. as an Assistant Principal.

A graduate of Ball State Teachers College, he received both Bachelor of Science and a Master of Art Degrees in Education. Besides his duties as assistant principal, Mr. Day teaches mechanical drawing, coaches wrestling and Junior Varsity Football. He also sponsors Student Council and the corridor monitors.

Mr. Day is an avid sports enthusiast. Hunting, fishing, and golfing are among his favorites.

and Counsel the Students.

Guidance Director

Highland's gain was Hobart's loss when Mrs. Annabelle Shone, our new Dean of Girls, assumed her duties and became a part of the H.H.S. teaching staff. She has proved to be an aid to all who seek her counsel.

Sponsor of Dramatics Club, Career Day, College Day, and the Leadership Conference, Mrs. Shone is active in all phases of school life. She is a member of the American Association of University Women and is affiliated with the Hobart Players' Guild.

A graduate of Indiana University, with a Bachelor of Arts in Latin, she also completed her Master of Science degree in Guidance. Her graduate courses, taken at Purdue, include Guidance, Speech, and Drama.

Three faculty members listen while Miss Youman, Sophomore Class sponsor and English instructor, Mr. Richard Barack, Social Studies instructor and co-sponsor of Student Council, and Miss Phyllis Russey, Spanish and English instructor, and sponsor of Spanish Club and Senior Class.

Promoting Education . . .

Mr. Robert Royer, mathematics instructor, and Freshman Class sponsor; Mr. Ken Sypult, Health and Physical Education instructor, Varsity football and J.V. basketball coach, Mr. Sam Sopp, Chemistry and Algebra instructor, golf coach, and Science Club sponsor, and Mrs. Virginia Brock, Home Economics teacher and sponsor of Y-Teens and Junior Class, take time out to pose for cameraman.

Four of our every-busy teachers talk over school problems. They are Mrs. Inez Tucker, Eighth Grade Class sponsor and English instructor, Mr. Merlin Clinckenbeard, cross-country, Freshman basketball, and baseball coach, co-sponsor of F.B.L.A., and Physical Education and Business instructor, Mr. Roland Sheets, Social Studies instructor; and Mr. Robert Kelly, Social Studies instructor.

Advising School Activities . . .

Making plans for the school are Mr. Arthur G. Gilliam, Wood Shop and Mechanical Drawing instructor; Miss Violet Herring, Algebra and Physics instructor and sponsor of the Eighth Grade and Science Club; Miss Dorothy Schmitz, sponsor of the Freshman Class and FBLA and Commercial instructor; and Mrs. Pat Golubiewski, English instructor.

Mrs. Anne Matthew, Physical Education instructor and GAA sponsor, tells some antidotes about occurrences in her classes as Mr. Albert Leas, Social Studies instructor, Mr. Robert Kellam, English and Speech instructor and sponsor of the Dramatics Club, Honor Society, and the Sophomore Class, laugh appreciatively.

Four members of the faculty discuss Highland's accreditation. They are Mr. Joseph Dolak, Mathematics and Science instructor; Mr. John Brinkley, Junior Class sponsor and Social Studies instructor; Miss Alpha Braunschwarth, sponsor of F.T.A. and Latin instructor; and Mr. Donald Clark, Advanced Mathematics instructor and sponsor of the Rocket Club and the Senior Class.

Teachers Lend Aid

Teachers laugh too, and here are Mrs. Royer, English instructor; Mr. Gordon Wilder, Choir instructor; Miss Phyllis Bates, Business instructor; and Mr. Stan, Mechanical Drawing and Industrial Arts instructor.

Taking a break from their busy schedule, these teachers relax in the court. They are Mr. Leonard Tews, Biology instructor; Miss Marjorie Bluhm, Art instructor, sponsor of the Sign Painters Club and Booster Club; Mr. Don Kaupke, Science instructor, assistant track coach and Varsity football coach, Eighth Grade basketball coach and Class sponsor; Mr. Deon Speicher, Typing and Journalism instructor, sponsor of Trojanal, Shield, Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society, and FBLA.

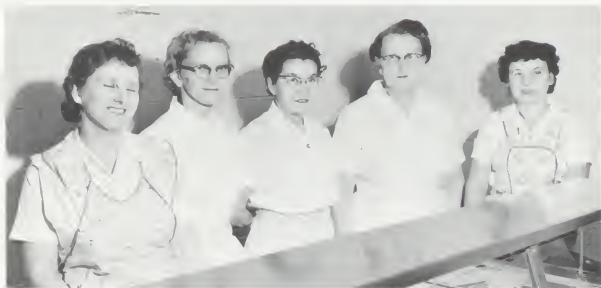

Mrs. Alberta Beveridge, Home Economics instructor, and Mr. Edwin Kibiger, Band instructor, discuss the beauty of Highland High School.

School Personnel Perform a Vital Task.

The most popular people at noon are those on the Kitchen staff. Mary Alice Gorman, Geneva Hill, Mrs. I. Vojda, Mrs. A. Blink, and Mrs. J. Soderstrom are greatly appreciated for their hard work.

Student Leaders Named

It may be assumed that a group of the calibre of the Class of 1960 contains within it some very prominent and outstanding individuals. These persons are those who lend their aid to the school in every possible way; these pupils are the student leaders; they have maintained good academic records throughout their high school years, and have exhibited leadership in all phases of school life.

Outstanding Seniors

Active in extra-curricular activities and and contributing to the social aspect of school life, these individuals have been a definite asset in the conception of Highland traditions, clubs, and sports' standings.

Chosen according to leadership abilities, contribution to extra-curricular activities, and personality, these Seniors are the epitome of the standards set by the Class of 1960.

Seated is Jerry Woodfill, and with him are Connie Beard and Judy Carlson.

Mary Dolatowski, Carole Dahlgren, and Glaria Orban are shown in the school Library.

Graduation Marked The End of An Era

Senior class officers Dick Raduenzel, Treasurer; Bob Fish, President; Jerry Waadfill, Vice-President; and Connie Beard, Secretary; take the wheel as they guide the class of 1960 through a praperaus and reward-ing year.

Seniors enjoyed a multitude of activities this year due to the efficient and imaginative planning of class President Bob Fish. The candy sales and Senior-sponsored soc hop were the major moneymaking projects and financed later activities including the Senior dance and banquet. The Prom and Senior Week served as a final fling before somber Baccalaureate and Commencement ceremonies ended a successful and rewarding high school career

A career which began three years ago, when the class of 1960 passed through the portals of a new school (building) to earn the distinction and meet the challenge of becoming Highland's first graduating class. They were willing and able to tackle the task; the challenge was met and the result is HHS as we know it today. They dominated school life for three years; their presence was a luxury, and their loss will be felt.

And so we salute the class of 1960; the class mainly responsible for our present mode of school life, the formation of leading school clubs, our high scholastic standards, and the all-round success of the formative years of HHS.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Readying themselves for ascension to the leadership of H. H. S., industrious members of the class of '61 took a new role in school activities.

With Highland's first Junior-Senior Prom to take place in May, the Juniors busied themselves with plans for this all-important event. Funds were raised by sponsoring a chili supper and soc-hop.

Sporting their new class rings and winning the trophy for the best float entry in the Homecoming Parade were just two of the many activities in which the Juniors participated this year.

Secretary-Barbara Bell and Treasurer-Tim Blakely assist in the executive duties of the Junior Class.

Holding the honors of having the largest and smallest class rings are Pete Haliday and Pat Zeman.

Sophomores Made Plans For the Future

Preceded by a year of bewilderment, the Class of '62 finally overcame the complexities of high school life. After they learned the routine, customs, and habits of H.H.S., these Soph's began to make plans for the ensuing years.

Loyal Trojans, the Sophomores constituted a large majority of sports enthusiasts and made preparations for their Junior and Senior years.

Sophomores Margie Parker and Bill Swisshelm discuss plans for the coming year with their class sponsors, Miss Youman and Mr. Kellam.

Heading the well-organized Sophomore Class are President, Tom Garbet and Vice-President, Margie Parker.

Sophomore officers, Leslie Jones, Treasurer; and Sue Riple, Secretary; take time out from their busy schedule, as they relax on the front lawn.

Freshmen

High school? A wonderful new adventure for these bewildered greenhorns. Typical Freshies are said to be perplexed and confused. Our Freshmen, like all others, displayed these signs of Freshmanism.

However, the Class of '63 soon became accustomed to school life, and became a real asset to the high school. Always backing school projects and activities, the Freshmen were well-presented at all school functions.

Freshmen Oriented to School Life

Wilma Marion and Dave Smith illustrate the typical "Freshman look of wonder."

Guiding the Freshmen through a busy year are their class officers: President, Steve Eastham; Vice-President, Mike Steffy; Secretary, Wilma Marion; and Treasurer, Bob Imes.

Full of pep and enthusiasm, the Eighth Grade cheerleaders: Donna Hamilton, Bobby Brannen, Melanie MacKenzie, and Karen Abblett, supported their team.

Eighth Graders Anticipate High School Years

Being both the largest and youngest class in HHS, these Eighth grade students represent the future. Active in all school functions, they contribute much to school life. Their loyalty to both team and school makes them an important factor at Highland.

Preparing the Eighth Grade Class for high school activities are the class officers: Jim Hardesty, Vice President, Sandi Barney, Secretary, Bruce Burroughs, Treasurer, and Carl Topor, President.

A school, as any individual, necessitates recognition for outstanding achievement. As our students are the building blocks of HHS, their construction efforts as architects in our mammoth task of setting an honorable precedent for future scholars to follow also necessitated due recognition.

This recognition was given to outstanding students by membership in the National Honor Society. Scholastic ability alone does not make a successful student, just as the skeleton of a building does not make a school. Our Honor Society students excelled in leadership, personal characteristics, and school service as well.

Jerry Woodfill, valedictorian of the Senior class, looks forward to a bright future as an architectural engineer.

High standards were set throughout HHS the past three years and hitching our scholastic wagon to a star was no exception. Though competition ran high and there was always a stiff challenge at hand, many of our scholars have the right to pat themselves on the back for a job well done.

Two such students are valedictorian, Jerry Woodfill, and salutatorian, Judy Carlson. These top scholars in the class of '60 have done superior work throughout their high school years, creating a strong spirit of school pride in another phase of school life at HHS.

Salutatorian of the class of 1960, Judy Carlson, plans to attend Indiana State Teachers College.

Scholars Earn Top Honors

Highland's delegates to Girls' and Boys' State were: Leslie Riechers, Louise Smith, Judy Carlson, Bob Fish, Jerry Woodfill, and Ziggy Ondo.

Gloria Orban, Highland's delegate to the Indianapolis Council of World Affairs in Washington D.C., discusses plans for the trip.

Participants in the mock government conference, Judy Carlson, Leslie Riechers, and Louise Smith, at Girls' State and Bob Fish, Zigmund Ondo, and Jerry Woodfill at Boys' State were chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, personality, and character.

Gloria Orban, delegate to the Indianapolis Council on World Affairs Tour to Washington D. C. and New York City, was one of 37 students to tour the Nation's capital and visit historical sights in New York City.

H.H.S. . Provides Varied Curriculum

Despite the emphasis on the college preparatory courses, other fields are not neglected as varied courses are offered for Commercial, Industrial Arts, and Home Economics majors. Offering this diversified curriculum to meet the demands of all students, H.H.S. strives to prepare the students for a better future.

Busy typists give undivided attention to a typical timed-writing.

Shop training stresses effective and safe use of equipment.

Although the mind of the individual is of utmost importance, the physical being, too, is developed. Through Phys. Ed. classes, the G.A.A., a system of intramurals open to all grades, and the school athletic teams, every student can and does participate in athletic activities.

In the Physics lab students realize the importance of precision and the necessity of experimentation.

Teachers Aid Students

Mr. Tews points out to several of his students the organs of human body.

Fifty-six courses are offered pupils throughout their high school career. These studies range from the ordinary Moth, English, and Science courses to the more specialized courses such as Music Appreciation, Development of the Constitution, and College Math. Instructors are well qualified, eighteen of whom possess their Master's degree.

The recently-acquired Moth equipment proves very helpful to the Moth students.

Mrs. Brock joins in on the busy activity usually evident in the sewing room.

Students Work

Instead of training pupils, the teaching staff attempts to instill in each student an inquisitive mind, so that the individual may become a thinking being rather than an inanimate object. This person investigates on idea, instead of accepting it blindly, rejects the fallacious and accepts the veracious.

A constant source of information, the Library is used for various types of research.

Art can take many forms and the art students here express themselves through work with ceramic tiles.

"Knowledge is like a torch, the higher it is held-the farther it is seen." It is the hope of the faculty and administration that the torch of learning will shine brightly to light the future pathway for all Highland students.

SCHOOL LIFE

School Life Is Full And Varied

A typical scene in the Highland High halls is illustrated by Kathy Miles and Dick Johnson.

Students, rearranging the trophy case, show pride in their school achievements.

Locker inspection provides rare sport for otherwise unoccupied librarians.

Each Day Presents New Challenges

The cafeteria is a tempting sight for Highland High students after a long morning of classroom activities.

Mrs. Ethel Lemmel, retired Booster Club advisor, is presented with a gift of appreciation for her unremitting service by the Club President, Glorio Orbon.

Looking on are the present sponsors: Miss Majorie Bluhm and Miss Mortho Nicholson.

The Speech students contributed to the 1958 Book Drive by stressing the importance of this project at various civic organizations.

Convos Serve Two-Fold Purpose

Louise Smith, President of Honor Society, presents the second semester members with their membership cards.

The new members are: Barbara Fiegle, Kay Johnson, Carolyn Walsh, and Mary Ann Dolatowski.

An ever-welcome break in the routine of classes, convocations are another way of providing for the extension of the experiences of the student body; convos extend the scope of experience in the fields of information and entertainment. Three of this year's convos were: the dental hygiene which was informative, a professional banjo-player which was entertaining, and the National Honor Society convoca, being a medium between both.

Participants in the Honor Society Convocation, which was held to promote the sale of yearbooks, spoke on the aspects of school life: Gala, Glamor, Glory, Grades, and Guidance.

These Honor Society members are: G. Orban, J. Carlson, J. Welsh, P. Baker, and L. Reichers.

Another of the innovations at Highland High School this year has been the formation of the Lettermans Club. Sparked by a group of Senior athletes, the organization, though hastily fabricated, is already progressing in an extremely beneficial direction.

Sponsored by Coach Ken Sypult, with Pat Pope as President, Ronnie Blink, Vice-President, and Mike Burroughs, Secretary-Treasurer, the club is dedicated to athletic recognition and progression.

Mike Burroughs, Secretary-Treasurer; Pat Pope, President; Ronnie Blink, Vice-President.

These busy officers have headed the GAA organization during the past year. They are Sharon Yates, Treasurer; Pat Baker, Vice President; Marita Wells, Secretary; and Carole Dahlgren, President.

GAA Offers

The Girl's Athletic Association, better known to its members as GAA, aims to stimulate the co-curricular phase of girls' physical education program. Membership requires that the girls pass a series of skill tests and earn a minimum of points through participation in sports. Organized activities for six-week periods have consisted of bowling, basketball, and volleyball.

In the Spring of 1959, GAA members demonstrated their athletic skill at a Parents' Nights program which took place in the High School gymnasium.

Sports for Girls

Later in the year, the girls made another showing when they challenged the boys' intramural team to a mock basketball game. Cheered only by the student body, added to the hilarity by donning boxing gloves!

However, the most eagerly awaited event sponsored by the club is the annual G A A semi-formal dance. Starry-eyed couples will not soon forget that dreamland the members created for one magic night.

Sign Painters Provide Posters

"We're small in number, but mighty in ideas," was the motto of our Sign Painter's Club in its second year of existence. The club, eight strong, strove to furnish all school organizations with desired publicity.

The creative ability and originality of these HHSers were displayed in town by the club's informative bill boards and posters. A profusion of new ideas, artistry at its best, are two important mainstays of our Sign Painters Club.

Y-Teens Boasts Largest

Y-Teens strives to build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living. In this endeavor, they seek to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and Love of God.

Sponsoring service projects, popcorn, candy, and potato chip sales keeps this organization ever-busy. However, it is not all work and no play, for Y-Teens have an annual slumber party, a formal dance, and soc-hop.

The Melody Is Over But The Memories Linger On

Typical of Highland's social activities is this victory dance following a thrilling football game.

In this picture the Highland students display joy as they rack to the music of the record player while celebrating the Homecoming victory.

School organizations participated in Homecoming activities by entering floats in the parade which took place Thursday October 1. The Juniors were successful as their float captured first place; Y-Teens came off second-best, and the Booster Club entry, which carried the queen candidates, won third place. The parade terminated at Main School where cheerleaders led the crowd in a pep rally.

Friday night, a huge motorcade through Highland to the football field initiated festivities, and students jammed the stadium to watch the highly-touted Trojans. Trojan boosters were disappointed when Highland came through the first half with a six point deficit.

Barbara Fiegle displayed her emotions, as she was announced 1959 Homecoming Queen.

Band Members Displayed Many

During the past two football seasons, the Highland High band has performed as a marching unit at the Homecoming and other home games. After much hard work and drilling, the band members displayed many original and intricate maneuvers. Gary Moore proved to be a very able drum major, as did his assistant, Steve Eastham. Both boys were sponsored by the Highland Band Parents to attend the Smith-Walbridge Camp for drum majors during the month of August, and Gary Moore received a First Class Certificate for his outstanding performance at the camp. Other participants in marching band were the three drum majorettes, Pat Morton, Donna Doetschman, and Chuckie Deak.

Original And Intricate Manuevers

Two pep bands were formed to play during the basketball home games and were directed by Gary Moore and Bob Witherspoon.

To supply the band with much-needed uniforms the Highland Band Parents Association has assumed the responsibility for raising the necessary funds. Last year the Minstrelrama was presented under the leadership of Eugene Gambiril, and the proceeds went toward the uniforms. This year the Band Parents sponsored a Tag Day to raise money.

The Highland High concert band, under the direction of Edwin Kibiger, is composed of high school and eighth grade students. The band performs in the annual Christmas Concert with the Choral Department and also presents an annual spring concert. Taking part in the Memorial Day program at the Highland cemetery has been a privilege of the band for many years.

At the yearly N.I.S.B.O.V.A. band contests, the concert band has received one excellent and two superior ratings. Besides taking part in some of the school convocations, the band has also sponsored several special convocations.

A newly organized vocal group, the Boys' Quartet consists of Tony Nevers, Bob Vuxinic, Alan Van Bodegraven, and Denny Dugan. They have taken part in several of the performances by the choral department, and each time have given an excellent account of themselves.

"Big Wheels" supervised the production, advertising and sales of Highland's first annual. They are: Row 1: Leslie Riechers, Personnel Director; Gloria Orban, Business Manager. Row 2: Virginia Vanzo, Advertising Manager; and Kay Johnson, Editor-in-Chief.

The SHIELD, another Highland first, came into being May 13 due to the tireless efforts of an energetic group that worked diligently for weeks and months.

The staff, which was not organized until late September, was hindered because of the loss of much needed time and the lack of pre-planning. However, after a few weeks things began rolling as members became accustomed to their duties. Guidance by Advisor Dean Speicher was an absolute necessity, as all staff workers were inexperienced.

Deadlines were met with a flurry of papers, the clicking of typewriters, and the groans of typists and copy-writers. Late evenings at school typified year-book efforts.

The finished product depicts three years of progress, glory, and frolic--years never-to-be-forgotten by today's students. These memories are here recorded for all to cherish and remember fondly those "good, old high school days!"

In its second year as an operating concern, the TROJANAL published eighteen issues. These included eight copies printed by Ralph Beer of Hammond and ten issues mimeographed by the TROJANAL staff. Included in this number were several issues of distinction, the sectional tourney issue and the graduation finale, to mention only two.

The TROJANAL staff, forty strong, made many advancements this year. The first major step was the acquisition of a journalism teacher and new publications advisor, Mr. Dean Speicher. Our previous sponsor, Miss Phyllis Russey, is responsible for the organization of the original TROJANAL staff.

Cross Country Coach Clinkenbeard points out the road to victory to two of his staunchest performers, Greg Sandborn and Jerry Woodfill.

Highland, under the direction of Head Coach Merlin Clinkenbeard, ended its second year of cross country with a record of two wins and four losses. Of the four meets in which the Trojan harriers participated, they defeated Griffith and Thornton Fractional North. Highland was paced by the one-two punch of Greg Sandborn and Jerry Woodfill. Although the Trojans have been slow in starting, next year should prove more rewarding, for only two letter winners, Jerry Woodfill and Bob Carroll, are graduating.

Highland's Trojan footballers, sporting senior squad members for the first time, finished their schedule with a five game winning streak, and an impressive 8-2 over all record.

Led by the running of Pat Pope and Dick Raduenzel, the Highlanders demonstrated a consistent ground game and a sturdy, though erratic, defense in setting a stiff precedent for following Trojan aggregations.

Coach Syputl's charges executed a well-oiled offense which proved to be the second best in the state of Indiana. This offense also produced co-leading touchdown performer in Indiana in the form of halfback, Pat Pope.

Perhaps the most inspirational performance of the campaign occurred in the come-from-behind Homecoming victory over Hammond Clark. This win enabled our gridgers to gain the momentum for their last five victorious ventures.

After completing a seasonal record of 8 wins and two losses, Trojan coaches take time out to pose for a picture: back coach, Don Kaupke, line coach, Randy Sheets, and head coach, Ken Syputl.

Co-captains, Doc Strapon and Dick Johnson discuss strategy for upcoming game with head coach, Ken Syputl.

Tradition Comes to Highland

Football at Highland High School was innovated for the purpose of building men as well as recording victories.

The fact that the Trojans recorded victories can be readily recognized by their sterling 8-2 performance. However, it may also be noted that football at our high school played the part of a catalyst in developing a sense of sportsmanship and team play in a group of inexperienced individuals which will undoubtedly aid them in their future endeavors. Also gained through these gridiron experiences was a sense of self-discipline, through their adherence to the strict training rules set down for them by Coach Ken Syputl.

The young men from Highland have finally arrived, ready to challenge the name teams and establish their own niche of tradition in the Calumet Area.

Trojans Triumph

The summer ended prematurely for the members of the Varsity Football team, as they reported on August 15, to begin a grueling two-week practice and conditioning routine in preparation for the on coming campaign.

HAMMOND TECH- The Trojans trekked to Tech to send their first senior grid squad against the Tigers. Trailing 13-0, the visitors fought back to knot the score, which resulted in a 26-13 loss. TOUCHDOWNS: Pope (2).

TOUCHDOWNS: Raduenzel (2), Pope (1).

MOROCCO- The visitors left Highland with very bitter memories, as the Trojans turned on the gas to score an overwhelming 40-7 triumph. The win moved the Highland Trojan's record to 2-1 and allowed our boys to even another old score.

TOUCHDOWNS: Pope (2), Strapon (1).

LOWELL--Our home guard repulsed the invading Red Devils by a score of 33-13. Raduenzel and Pope ran up over 340 yards rushing and shared 5 touchdowns, as the Trojans utilized their running game to the best advantage. The win moved the Highland record to 5-2.

TOUCHDOWNS: Pope (3), Raduenzel (2).

HOWE MILITARY--The Trojans notched their 6th win of the campaign when they edged the previously unbeaten Howe unit by a score of 19-14. Perhaps the most exciting contest of the year,

Plagued by a complete lack of experience, the Trojan Juniors managed to salvage only one victory in their six game schedule.

The losses to Hobart (7-0), Rensselaer (12-6), and Munster (6-0) illustrate the fact that many of the defeats were of the type which could have just as easily be converted to victories.

Spearheading the J.V. effort were two promising Freshmen, Larry Watson and Walter Jovanovich. With a year of experience under their belt, great things are expected from these youngsters in later years.

Senior guard Dick Johnson leads the mighty Trojan cagemen through the "Victory Hoop" in the semi-final game of the Sectionals.

Trojans Blast Out 22-2 Record

The Trojans, in their second season of Varsity competition and with their first Senior Class, attained an overwhelming 22-2 record and established an outstanding tradition for future Highland hardwood teams to follow.

Highland's unknown Trojans streaked to an amazing total of 22 victories against only 2 losses, avenging all their '58-'59 losses in the process. The entire team was back, but the coaching job, previously held by Bob Straight, was replaced by our former baseball coach, Mr. Randy Sheets.

The Trojans started fast with a 72-44 triumph over Wheatfield at DeMotte, and a well-played 69-68 victory over highly-regarded Hammond Tech.

At home for the first time, the men of Troy avenged a '58' loss to Fowler's Bulldogs with a 56-41 romp. Dyer Central's Indians also fell, as Coach Sheets' charges ran up a 63-49 advantage.

The long anticipated grudge game with arch-rival Griffith developed well for Highland, as they jumped to a 21-7 quarter lead, and coasted in a 62-53 win.

Routine wins over Knouts 71-57, Portage 58-47, and Chesterton 85-41 moved the victory streak to an unblemished record.

The Highlanders, January 2 visit to Rensselaer proved infamous, as our heroes fell 72-59, after a first quarter barrage by the Bombers left our quintet with a 10 point defeat.

Ready for action, are these ever-famous players, which led our team to a 22-2 record. They are: D. Johnson, J. Woodfill, J. Mussat, L. Scalfield, D. Raduenzel.

Highland Captures Sportsmanship Trophy

Coach Sypult and Sheets discuss strategy for the next game.

The Gary Edison Tourney, a post-holiday affair, furnished the Trojans with their first tournament trophy. Coach Sheets led his performers in a rewin over Chesterton 76-57, and eliminated host, Gary Edison, for the crown.

Lowell, 59-55, Crown Point 85-51, and tall DeMotte 58-56, fell before Highland's victory-starved quintet, before our boys got the opportunity revenge last season losses to Hobart's Brickies, and Morton's Governors by respective 79-60, and 83-44 tallies.

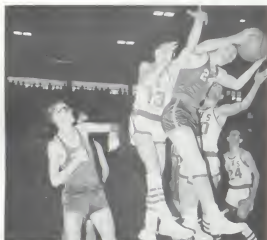

East Gary (60-54), Hebron (78-52), proved no strain for the Highlanders, but Merrillville's upset-minded Pirates forced the Trojans to a sudden death overtime before winning 58-56.

A 61-52 triumph over Gary Wirt gave Highland the best record among Lake County independents, 19 wins and one loss.

The Trojans entered the East Chicago Sectional probably one of the toughest in the state, and won three games before bowing to E.C. Washington in the final game, 83-66.

The Trojans shown here displaying their first Trophy which was acquired by copping the Gary Edison Invitational Taurney, are: Row 1: L. Scaffield, D. Jahnsan, J. Mussatt, J. Newell, J. Starcevich, D. Barney. Row 2: P. Strapan, D. Raduenzel, M. Ansich, D. Miller, H. Armstrong, J. Woodfill.

Jerry Woodfill watches hardworking teammate Lynn Scaffield grab one of his many rebounds against Hammand High in the semi-final game of the Sectionals.

A host of Trojans led by Lynn Scaffield and Jerry Mussatt try in vain for the rebound, as Washington's Rudy Lomar hits another of his "unconscious" shots.

Mr. Warren proudly displays the Lake County "Spatsmanship" traphey which was awarded to Highland during sectionals.

The Highland Freshman had a mediocre season due to lack of size and extreme inexperience; but the season was highlighted by the ball-hawking of David Smith, Denny Howard and Doug Stampor, and the rebounding of Woody Norman, Chuck Puntillo, and Mike Vrabel. Due to the tedious efforts of Coach Merlin Clinkenbeard the young Trojans gained experience which will undoubtedly aid them in their future athletic endeavors at Highland High.

Eighth Grade and Freshman Gain Valuable Experience

The Highland Eighth Graders, under the watchful eye of Coach Kaupke, vastly improved their disastrous 1958-59 record by posting a season record of 9 wins and 6 losses. The team led by the rebounding of Carl Topor, Lanny Wells, and Mike Pedziwiatr and the ball-handling of Joe Prepsky and Pat McShane. The season was highlighted by a come-back victory over Saint Mary's; although the young Trojans faced a 13-3 deficit at halftime, they surged back to win 30-24

Wrestlers Take To Mat For First Time

Shortly after football season last fall, a call was made for those interested in participating on Highland High's first wrestling squad. Thirty-six boys answered the call. Although some found the sport not to their liking, the squad maintained approximately the same number throughout the season. Most of the squad did not know the difference between the on-guard stance and the referee's position at the first practice; however, with Bob Vuxinic doing most of the demonstrating, they soon learned the fundamentals of wrestling. Although the team took it on the chin more often than not, the squad felt that the experience proved valuable. One of the highlights of the season was a trip for ten squad members to Purdue to see the Northwestern match with Purdue. Another was to have three boys advance to the second round of the local sectional tournament at East Chicago Washington. Those boys were Tony Nevers, 112-pound class; Vuxinic in the 127-pound class, and Fred Jakubielski in the 154-pound class.

Following the precedence established for them by the other successful Highland athletic fives and elevens, the Trojan golf team compiled an amazing record in their first year of varsity competition.

Their 11-8 mark included decisions over such firmly established and highly regarded schools as Bishop Noll, E. C. Washington, and E. C. Roosevelt.

Sparked by the consistent performances of Jerry Woodfill, Ron Quigg, Richard Abblett, Charles Steffy, and Budy Starceвич, the Trojans were able to place sixth in the Lake Hills Invitational, and ninth in the sectional.

It may also be noted that the Highland squad will lose only one letterman, and can be expected to come back even stronger next fall.

their future

The young people you see in these pictures are all on their way to successful careers in one of America's basic industries . . . steel. They decided (as we hope you will decide) to let Inland Steel Company help them plan their future.

Some are gaining knowledge and experience in special trades to become journeyman machinists, carpenters or electricians . . . some are concentrating on certain phases of steelmaking by working in the open hearth shops, the cold rolling mills or the galvanizing lines. Still others are working in laboratories building a sound foundation for a future in steel research.

Inland offers the high school graduate an excellent opportunity to further his education. Employees may participate in a variety of on-the-job training programs, or they can continue their formal education by registering for evening courses offered by local Purdue and Indiana University Extension Centers.

Plan now to investigate the unlimited opportunities for you in steel . . . with the midwest's own steel company . . . INLAND STEEL.

The SHIELD Staff Closes The Book.

The "End of the Beginning" soon arrived, leaving with me but a few words to say.....

After long months of preparation and planning, of exhausting work, short tempers, long nights, the Shield staff met its final deadline, and Highland's first yearbook went to press.

And so I offer my thanks to a wonderful staff, without whose efforts the 1960 Shield would not be a reality, but a dream.
